

“By The Blade” Lyrics

Music and Lyrics by Jean Louis Marcel Pedat aka Jay Elle (ASCAP)

Published by Jean Louis Pedat Music (ASCAP)

Verse 1:

It's a shame
Between you and I
I always seem to end up being
The fall guy

Chorus 1:

Again and again
I get played
You're holding the knife
By the blade

Verse 2:

No matter what I do
I'm the bull's eye
Ain't the flying knives
Just supposed to pass by?

Chorus 2:

Again and again
I get played
You're holding the knife
By the blade
No matter what you've

Got it made
You're holding the knife
By the blade

Bridge 1:

Not so sure about
Your marksmanship
In this strange Vaudeville
All I get is tip after tip

Verse 3:

Maybe it's time
We call it quits
Every time the blade hits
I'm shredded to bits

Chorus 3:

Again and again
I get played
You're holding the knife
By the blade
No matter what you've
Got it made
You're holding the knife
By the blade
You're holding the knife
You're holding the knife
You're holding the knife

By the blade

Bridge 2:

You

Got me to believe

You

Promised some reprieve

But you

Got me tied up to your spinning wheel

Holding my heart

Above my head

You pin it down

Just like a paper plate

Verse 4:

Always wearing

Your blindfold

The thrill's all yours

That blade's so cold

Chorus 4:

Again and again

I get played

You're holding the knife

By the blade

No matter what you've

Got it made

You're holding the knife

By the blade
As long as I stay the
Scars will never fade
You're holding the knife
By the blade
You're holding the knife
You're holding the knife
You're holding the knife
By the blade
By the blade
