Wake up

Open up your eyes

It's a shady world outside

You've got to realize

They keep you in the dark

Stop fearing every one of their lies

There's always a better church

Like there's always a better love

Don't wanna listen to you mother

Just want to be a lost boy

Way down the road

When they're dead and gone

Who you're gonna call

If you can't stand on your own?

Here they go again

Always trying to scare me

That's how they rule this world

Just like when I was a young boy

And it was only thunder

What they're calling madness, arrogance

Makes me dare to be more

Don't let them lock the school doors

Don't let them boy
Or there won't be a safe place anymore
Way down the road
When they're dead and gone
Who you're gonna call
If you can't stand on your own?

Way down the road
When they're dead and gone
Who you're gonna call
If you can't stand on your own?

Way down the road
When they're dead and gone
Who you're gonna call
If you can't stand on your own?

Just wanna be a lost boy
