

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Margaret Dorn and The Accidentals Bring Holiday Radiance with A Cappella Christmas Classics

New York, NY — November 2025 – This season, radio audiences can experience the spirit of Christmas in high harmony, thanks to Margaret Dorn and The Accidentals. Their combined release, A Christmas Collection: Timeless Songs, brings together standout tracks from two celebrated albums, I Am Not Going Home for Christmas and An Accidental Christmas.

The spotlight songs, “Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas,” “I Wonder As I Wander,” “Patapan,” and “Carol of the Bells,” offer a captivating blend of classic and contemporary, all delivered in the group’s signature a cappella style. The result is both familiar and fresh, infused with classical, jazz, pop, and choral traditions.

Margaret Dorn, known for her vocal mastery and visionary arrangements, leads this collection with sensitivity and soul. The original Accidentals, New York’s premier, award-winning, a cappella vocal group, bring these arrangements to life with unmatched precision and warmth, each member adding their own arrangements, original compositions and unique vocal sounds to the collection.

The album is now available on all digital platforms. Programmers and DJs can access high-quality WAVs, one-sheets, and more at:

<https://halfmoonrecordsandpublishing.com/the-margaret-dorn-christmas/>

Celebrate the season with music that resonates, deeply, joyfully, and harmoniously.

Contact:

Andrea Reynolds

andreareynolds@halfmoonrecordsandpublishing.com

646-609-2155