Oregon

Six in the morning and the sky is dark
Joggers are slogging through forest park
I'm sipping latte and reading the news
Putting on the pounds that the runners lose

I love the mountain and i love the spray
A thousand different shades of green and gray
From may to october the skies are clear
Raindrops on roses the rest of the year

Temperature's rising, just above the freeze
Out come the sandals and the goose-bump knees
Hope springs eternal with one ray of sun
That's the wacky spirit of oregon

(chorus)

Oh, oregon…

The summers are heaven, brilliant sapphire sky
We all stay here while the other folks fly
The dogs are catnapping while the children play
So i sit in the movies on a sunny day

Came from back east for a mid-life change
Looking for my fantasy home on the range
I finally got the horse in front of the cart
A jersey girl with a cowgirl heart

My sorrel gelding grazes in the rain
He's glowing bronze with a coppery mane
It feels like my life has finally begun
In the mountains and the valleys of oregon.

(chorus)

Music by Margaret Dorn (BMI) – Lyrics by Karen Kantor (BMI)

Published by: Jean Louis Pedat Music (ASCAP) – KKPublishing (BMI)

© 2024